- Article 1. The CYCU Regulations Governing Establishment and Counseling of Student Self-Governing Groups (hereinafter referred to as the “Regulations”) are established in accordance with Article 33 of the University Act and Article 40 of CYCU Articles of Association, in order to fulfill the students’ self-governing ability, train the students’ democratic literacy, practice the philosophy of holistic education, develop the students’ leadership, and deal with the student self-governing groups’ interest and right fairly.
- Article 2. The student self-governing groups referred to herein shall mean the groups founded based on the democratic spirit and self-governing philosophy upon approval of CYCU, including CYCU’s Student Association, Graduate Student Association, department associations.
- Article 3. The student self-governing groups shall enact their own articles of association in democratic manners according to the Regulations, and report the articles of association to the Office of Student Affairs for future reference, provided that the articles of association shall be held invalid, if they are in conflict with the Regulations.
- Article 4. The responsible person of each student self-governing group shall be elected openly and re-elected periodically, who may be re-elected for a consecutive term.
- Article 5. The student self-governing groups shall take into consideration the interest and right and sense of participation of most students when organizing any activities.
- Article 6. The school-wide student self-governing groups may delegate representatives to attend various meetings held by the school pursuant to the school's relevant requirements.
- Article 7. The student self-governing groups are allowed to collect membership fees from their members or accept donation and shall conduct a credit investigation pursuant to the relevant requirements.
- Article 8. The student self-governing groups shall supervise, keep and allocate their own expenditure, provided that they shall plan and utilize the expenditure carefully and thoroughly, and disclose the utilization of expenditure to members periodically. They shall also report to the Office of Student Affairs for future reference.
- Article 9. When any student self-governing group or its members attend off-campus activities on behalf of CYCU, the group or members shall accept the assistance and counseling provided by CYCU faculty, and report to the school for approval.

- Article 10. The student self-governing group's establishment and operation, publications and any other activities shall be subject to the assistance and counseling provided by CYCU faculty, and comply with CYCU's school rules and related laws.
- Article 11. Any activities organized by the student self-governing groups shall be in compliance with applicable laws and regulations
- Article 12. The student self-governing groups' assessment shall be conducted in accordance with CYCU Enforcement Rules of Implementation of Assessment on Student Self-Governing Groups and Student Clubs.
- Article 13. Where any student self-governing group violates CYCU's school rules, the Regulations or related laws, the doer and related responsible person shall be disciplined according to the school rules and shall bear the relevant legal liability.
- Article 14. The Regulations shall be approved by the University Affairs Committee Meeting, and promulgated and enforced by the Principal. The same shall apply where the Regulations are amended.
